Survival Spanish for Government

Habla Espanol?

You know you have Always Wanted to Learn

Now is the perfect opportunity! Please join your colleagues for 2 half-day sessions to learn basic vocabulary and grammar, along with conversational expressions, questions and commands. Guaranteed: after this two-block session, you will be able to both understand and speak fluently enough to successfully communicate with Spanish-only speaking customers, and navigate on the streets of a Spanish-language country!

Bill Harvey is by far the very best instructor in Spanish because he uses both humor and easy methods to remember what you've learned. This session will capture and hold your interest from the very beginning. Don't miss this one-time opportunity.

Survival Spanish is offered by the Leadership Network

William C Harvey, M.S., author, instructor, and founder of Language Services Institute has designed a collection of practical language and culture tips specifically for those who are interested in quickly learning how to communicate more effectively. Not only does his program guarantee learner success, he'll get you “tuned-in” to the local community; and he is a nationally-recognized authority on “cultural awareness and diversity”. His work leads others toward the goal of multi-cultural acceptance.
